Seeking to be an authentic Christ-like community

Week commencing 25th June 2017

WELCOME

As you join us today, we are thrilled to be able to welcome you here – in person or online. As we gather in God's presence, our prayer is that each individual person will grow to know and love God more.

This morning at 8.15, Malcolm will look at Colossians 1:20, considering that God made peace with everything in heaven and on earth by means of Christ's blood on the cross.

We extend a warm welcome this morning to the Hamill family and their friends as they bring Pippa for dedication. The teaching looks again this week at the first phrase of the well-known Lord's Prayer: 'Our Father'. These words define our relationship with God as one of undeserved and unconditional love, and form the basis for the other sections of the prayer.

This evening we welcome the family and friends of four people who are coming to publicly declare their faith in Jesus through baptism. We pray that they will themselves meet powerfully with God tonight, but that their step of faith will also impact everyone else in the building and joining us online.

We'd encourage anyone to speak to our team in person or by email to get any further information or guidance. We also serve drinks around the services to enable further discussion here on a Sunday – please do make the most of this!

Please see inside this bulletin for details of events over the next few weeks – you can be part of Gold Hill family life in numerous different ways!

Father God, we thank you that we can approach you as sons and daughters, that this relationship is made possible by Jesus, and thank you today for the lives and life stories which speak to us of your individual touch on each and every human being.

BAPTISM SERVICE SUNDAY EVENING 25TH JUNE

Have you been baptised? If you are a follower of Jesus, baptism is a celebration and a public symbol of your personal commitment to Him; it's also a command of Jesus that we should follow his example and be baptised. If you are thinking of baptism or have questions, then please speak to one of our Pastors or contact the office.
