Hello!

I hope you have had a great week! Today we are going to be thinking about conflict and what the Bible says about it.

Each week, there will be a video from one of our Sunday morning leaders to get us started. For this week...

What have you learnt from that story?

What do they teach us about conflict? Why is it important we deal with conflict in the right way?

How would you deal with conflict?

Putting it into action

Have a think of how you can put these verses into action.

Are there some situations with friends where you can help keep the peace?

Do you find it hard in times of conflict, can you pray that God gives you peace in those times?

Use the SOS guide to look at Proverbs 15:1

Worship

Here are some worship songs that you'd might like to listen to:
